I'm watching you asleep wondering if I'm in your dreams did I catch you when you fell? did I kiss your tears away?
Cuz I just wanna be
the man she sees in me
she seems so far away
she's calling out my name but can I ever be
the man that's in her dreams?
I pray to be one day...

I'm far awake from you
I softly sing your name I whisper words of love and chase your fears away cuz I just wanna be
the man she sees in me
she seems so far away
but can I ever be
the man that's in her dreams?
I pray to be one day...
