So many darken days have past.
So many lonely nights iÂ´ve had to last.
Distance to light and happiness.
Feels infinite I couldÂ´nt enjoying this less.
Closing my eyes i can see your face but the feeling of warmth is long gone.

I would fly leave this solitude to far behind.
Hold you eternally close to mine.
Get away from this million nights of winter.
I would if I only could.

Trying to cope with how it is.
Til ine day IÂ´ll feel joy and nothing of this.
Though with mind thatÂ´s frozen by this cold.
I can still recall what you are to hold.
I close my eyes and I wait for when the feeling of warmth will return.

I would fly leave this solitude far behind.
Hold you eternally close to mine.
Get away from this million nights of winter.
I would if I only could.

(guitar solo)

I would fly leave this solitude far behind.
Hold you eternallt close to mine.
Get away from this millon nights of winter.
I would if i only could.

I would fly leave this solitude far behind.
Hold you eternallt close to mine.
Get away from this millon nights of winter.
I would if i only could.
