"Fly Away"

Looking over million parts of my once called life
Shattered in infinity, cut out by own knife

The rain is coming,
Storm clouds are gathering above
I know it's time for me to go

I fly away, I am leaving this kinfdom of lies
Through the storm
Passing hell all for my kingdom come
All for a life one day

If only I could take you with me
But the past holds you enslaved
I have to let go of it or will tear me apart

The rain is coming,
I know it's time for me to go

I fly away, I am leaving this kinfdom of lies
Through the storm
Passing hell all for my kingdom come
All for a life one day

I fly away, I am leaving this kinfdom of lies
Through the storm
Passing hell all for my kingdom come
All for a life one day
