Feel is a word I can't explain
At least not in words that are plain
That make it easy to express
But I'll try to do my best
To hit you were it counts
I just wanna build up
A solid bond in your heart
A solid bond in your heart

I am fuelled by the idea
That this world was made to share
But it never seems to work out
And all we seem to share is Doubt and misery
I just wanna build up
A solid bond in your heart
A solid bond in your heart

Do you feel it in your soul
When your heart begins to fold
Keep it in mind to Keep on trying!

It's like a feeling deep inside
Please don't ever try to hide
A solid bond in your heart

I just wanna build up
A solid bond in your heart
It's what's missing from this life
And the trust you need to ignite
Any dream worth holding dear
When the dream is so near
You've got to try and try to get it back
Push it to the limit and build
A solid bond in your heart

adlib to fade.....
