WALKING THE NIGHT - Paul Weller/Mick Talbot

I feel like walking, because my poor hearts breaking

You told me once I know, but loves a thing that can go

Vanish in the night, its gone by morning's light

It drifted in one day - but I'm hoping it will Stay - in my arms always, never go away

I'll make this moment last and put time in the past

Where time alone can stop - stop me thinking

Walking the night - I'm wondering if I'm gonna see you again

You left me standing by wracked with wondering

Why I feel so insecure, yes a mad thing I know but I can't help myself, shake this feeling off

Lets start getting back - to where we started

>From the difference that I felt - I thought I knew myself

I thought I knew so well - now time alone will tell

If we can make time stop - and keep this feeling
