Yo, Vinny Idol, what do you call under the underground?
Twin ghost experience, yeah

From a hood where niggaz is miserable
Either gon' dead you or leave you in critical Niggaz talkin' money, then show me the visual
And then stand right there and get plucked like a chicken feather

Stickin' up the stick-up kids, nigga, I'm sick as ever
The gun is my bitch and I bet you we stick together
Stuck like two dogs fuckin', you must be ready to die
Fuckin' with me like, you want somethin'

Ring your bell and I have you like, "Who call?"
Smack you with a bat like Pujols, bottom of the ninth
You don't wanna see me at the bottom of the pint
Rowdy, be outtie 'cause I'm a problem for the night

Problem for your life, leg or arm missin'
I can step it up, have you doubt or your mom missin'
S.P. the Ghost and I'm trom' hittin'
Arm kickin' anytime, I'm spittin', nigga, just like a bomb hittin'

Somebody food gettin' ate
(Gettin' ate, yeah)
Somebody gettin' robbed for they plate
(For they plate, nigga)

You know I go hard for the cake
When it come to bein' hard, I'm the star of the state
(Nigga, what?)
I'm the star

Somebody food gettin' ate
(Gettin' ate)
Somebody gettin' robbed for they plate
(Robbed for they plate, motherfucker)

You know I go hard for the cake
(It's the twin ghost experience)
When it come to bein' hard, I'm the star of the state
I'm the star

Yo, yo, you want me to tell you how we do on the Island
Squeeze your girl ass, now what, knock your punk ass off balance
You can't come through Mickey D's, no burger no cheese
Find your head missin', do you still want the #3?

Big Mac, large order of 9's, no shake, we got shells
Pissin' on y'all bitches like R. Kell's
And more or less staple your balls together
And light you in kerosene, melt your whole face in your sweater

You see the rubber gloves, thugs Nervous doctors play in the E.R., still wind up pullin' the plug
'Cause it's a twin ghost experience, flesh and spirit
We bang, even the dead listen to deadly lyrics

Make Big turn in his grave, even 'Pac can hear it
Cochran on Dirt's death, yo, they tryin' to appeal it
But fuck that, all we want is the crack, the cash in bags
Come through heavy, you might get yapped, motherfucker

Somebody food gettin' ate
(Gettin' ate, yeah)
Somebody gettin' robbed for they plate
(For they plate, nigga)

You know I go hard for the cake
When it come to bein' hard, I'm the star of the state
(Nigga, what?)
I'm the star

Somebody food gettin' ate
(Gettin' ate)
Somebody gettin' robbed for they plate
(Robbed for they plate, motherfucker)

You know I go hard for the cake
(It's the twin ghost experience)
When it come to bein' hard, I'm the star of the state

A lot of niggaz hoped I would die young Pitched in the hood hard, want me to Cy Young

Real sharp words, guess I got me a fly tongue
Always get high 'cause I feel high-strung

I don't buy jewels, I buy haze and I buy guns
Or they hear me now like the dude from Verizon
Look at my eyes son, you won't see the next horizon
Kickin' that typical rap, despicable rap

Or to get a hawk in your face, clip in your back
Guess who, still keep the thing in the sweatsuit
Hot blood leakin' out your face is the best soup
Food in the kitchen, nigga, shit in the restroom

Wreck when it's wreck time, S.P. the Ghost is five star
Orders to the death when I rep mine
King and the queen die, just like chess time
If I don't kill you now I'll catch yo' ass next time

Somebody food gettin' ate
(Gettin' ate, yeah)
Somebody gettin' robbed for they plate
(For they plate, nigga)

You know I go hard for the cake
When it come to bein' hard, I'm the star of the state
(Nigga, what?)
I'm the star

Somebody food gettin' ate
(Gettin' ate)
Somebody gettin' robbed for they plate
(Robbed for they plate, motherfucker)

You know I go hard for the cake
(It's the twin ghost experience)
When it come to bein' hard, I'm the star of the state
I'm a star
