All these stars around
Let them shine on down
Shine all over you
The future isn't planned
Now I understand
What you are going through
But, how not to feel?
I am here to hold you

[Chorus:]

And I said that I would
Protect you from the dark again
And I meant
Did I promised to catch you if you fall again?
And I'll save you always

So let the rain come down
And fall about the ground
And feel them all around
Whatever you will be
It's more then you can see
Waiting for you now
So, how not to feel?
I am here to hold you

[Chorus]

And if your blue skies turn into gray
You can't get out of bed
Today I'll tell you
Tell and
Tell again

[Chorus]
