Stop for a second
Close your eyes
Take a picture in your mind

Let your sequined dream unfreeze
Why not tell me what you need

We are all we have now
Here we are somehow
And it's come to my attention
You belong
You belong to me

Wait for a moment
Breathe me in
Why don't you let our life begin

Imagination is all you need
What do you see
You see in me

We are all we have now
Here we are somehow
And it's come to my attention
You belong
You belong to me

We are all we have now
(We are all we have now)
Here we are somehow
(Here we are somehow)
And it's come to my attention
(It has come to my attention)
You belong
You belong to me
(You belong)
(You belong)
(You belong)
