Pain, pain, pain

All I know is pain, all I seen is death
Couple homies and brother gone, when I'm gon' step
I ain't suicidal, damn, my brain need rest
Think about my childhood, pain in my chest

Past is the past, future ain't great
All right in the hood when any day could be my last Pop some back, they wanna sue me for my math
Hawk some back, they wanna sue me for my math

Hard bein' a gangsta rapper, you don't know the half
You ain't got to condone it but you was never homeless
And you ain't never fast, so you don't know the wrath
To takin' a long walk down the wrong path

All I know is pain, everything I did wrong
I did it in vain, that's why I'm tryin' to change
Live for my seeds but the game ain't change
Only the strong survive, I will maintain

All I know is pain, all I give is pain
All I give is pain, all I live is pain
Only thing I know is mad years in the game
It's no love, ice cold blood runnin' all through my veins

All I know is pain, all I give is pain
All I give is pain, all I live is pain
Only thing I know is mad years in the game
It's more than rhymes, more shine than the diamonds
on your chain

What you know about pain?
Blood, sweat and tears, where I'm standin' in the rain
If I don't blow Mary Jane, I'm goin' insane
Before I had a car I was in the fast lane

Drug dealer stick up kids for the neck game, a lot that I regret
But I made it as a rapper and it's not what I expect

For a fact, this business is more crooked
The boys were selling souls to the devil, the Lord lookin'

See in you hell just in case that we all cookin'
I got sins too, lot of foul shit that I been through
The world is God house, I'm just a window pane Tryin' to maintain up to the end, yo

All I know is pain, all I give is pain
All I give is pain, all I live is pain
Only thing I know is mad years in the game
It's no love, ice cold blood runnin' all through my veins

All I know is pain, all I give is pain
All I give is pain, all I live is pain
Only thing I know is mad years in the game
It's more than rhymes, more shine than the diamonds
on your chain

All I know is pain, I feel so drained
Rap niggaz is insane, they on Procaine
What they call hot, I would call so lame
They don't care about the art and they show no shame

If you ain't gettin' spins, then you ain't gon' win
But if you came from the bottom you should stay goin' in
The Ghost don't make it then the Phantom gon' win
I'm a make the kids richer, make grandma grin

All I know is pain, all I give is pain
All I give is pain, all I live is pain
Only thing I know is mad years in the game
It's no love, ice cold blood runnin' all through my veins

All I know is pain, all I give is pain
All I give is pain, all I live is pain
Only thing I know is mad years in the game
It's more than rhymes, more shine than the diamonds
on your chain
