A rose in Harlem starts to bloom
The world is like a toy balloon
I hear a love song and I cry
And I know why

Because I love you, girl
Because I love you, girl
You know there?s nothing in the world that I wouldn?t
do
Nothing in the world that I wouldn?t do
For you because I love you

If you ask me for the moon
Of course I?d show up the moon
No matter what you ask I?ll try
And you know why

Because I love you, girl
Because I love you, girl
You know there?s nothing in the world that I wouldn?t
do
Nothing in the world that I wouldn?t do
For you because I love you

Because I love you, girl
Because I love you, girl
You know there?s nothing in the world that I wouldn?t
do
Nothing in the world that I wouldn?t do
For you because I love you
