Love, two pages in a book
So close it only took
A moment to know
That our love would grow together

And from the time I saw your face
The lovely smile you made
The feeling of doubt I had about
Tomorrow

Love at first sight, so right
In every way
Love at first sight, so tight
Ever since that day
Our love is here to stay
Love is here to stay

Strange, without a single word
Your voice was all I heard
Singing so clear
Calling me near, beside you

Forget, I know I never will
The day the earth stood still
The moment in time
I knew you'd be mine forever

Love at first sight, so right
In every way
Love at first sight, so tight
Ever since that day
Our love is here to stay
Love is here to stay

The moment in time
I knew you'd be mine forever

Love at first sight, so right
In every way
Love at first sight, so tight
Ever since that day
Love at first sight, so right

In every way
Love at first sight, so tight
Ever since that day
