In a world full of hatred and death and destruction
With nations at war all the time
It's so hard to resist all the evil seduction
And never drink the devil's wine

People need something to give them hope
To help them see it through
How lucky I am, how lucky I am
That I can turn to you

Love, love, love, love, love, love
Love, sweet love is the answer
Love, love, love, love, love, love
Love, sweet love is the answer

In a world that is greedy, where money means power
And many are hurt by a few
Where they laugh at the dreamers and trample the flowers
People don't know what to do

People need something to give them hope
To help them see it through
How lucky I am, how lucky I am
That I can turn to you

Love, love, love, love, love, love
Love, sweet love is the answer
Love, love, love, love, love, love
Love, sweet love is the answer
Love, love, love, love, love, love
Love, sweet love is the answer
