"Oh Girl"

Oh girl, Iâ'd be in trouble if you left me now
Cos I donâ't know where to look for love
I just donâ't know how
Oh girl, how I depend on you
To give me love when I need it
Right on time you would always be

All my friends call me a fool
They say let the woman take care of you
So I try to be hip and think like the crowd
But even the crowd canâ't help me now

Oh girl, tell me what Iâ'm gonna do
I know Iâ've got a guilty face
Girl, I feel so out of place
Oh yeah, yeah
Donâ't know where to go, who to see, yeah

Oh girl, I guess Iâ'd better go
I could save myself a lot of useless tears
Girl, Iâ've gotta get away from here
Oh girl, pain will double if you leave me now
Cos I donâ't know where to look for love
And I donâ't, I donâ't know how, oh yeah, mmm

Oh girl, I know I love you so, yeah
Better be on my way, I canâ't stay, yeah
