Woah...

I'd like to say your beneath me
I'd like to say that Im over you easily
But its not that easy
I think about constantly

You better watch your mouth when you talk about me
I'm not playin with you, what's your game plan C
I've got to hold up, under your pressure
N take you out of the picture

Everywhere you go
Everything you do its all the same to me
I don't really care what you do out there
What am I supposed to think?
Everywhere you go
Everything you do its all the same to me
Everywhere you go
Everything you do
Its just all the same to me

I heard what you said about me
Its incredible the games you're your playin
How did you forget so quickly?
The way that we used to be

You better watch your mouth when you talk about me
I'm not playing with you, what's your game plan C
I've got to hold up, under your pressure
And take you out of the picture

Everywhere you go
Everything you do its all the same to me
I don't really care what you do out there
What am I supposed to think?
Everywhere you go
Everything you do its all the same to me
Everywhere you go
Everything you do
Its just all the same to me

Woah...

If I said you were beneath me
What would that make me?
Everything you do right now
Its just all the same to me

If I said you were beneath me
What would that make me?
Everything you do right now
Its all just the same to me

If I said you were beneath me
What would that make me?
Everything you do right now
Its all just the same to me...

Everywhere you go
Everything you do its all the same to me
I don't really care what you do out there
What am I supposed to think?
Everywhere you go
everything you do its all the same to me
Everywhere you go
Everything you do
Its just all the same to me

Yo watch your mouth when you talk about me
Im not tryin to play, what's your game plan C
I've got to hold up under your pressure
N take you out of the picture

Woah..

Just all the same to me

Woah..

Just all the same.. to.. me..
