I asked myself a question
About this life n this lesson
N the obvious objectives
I will try not to be obsessive

We are all so cold
And nobody really knows
What to do n where to go
N I cant stand to think about it no more

I asked myself a question
About this life n this lesson
And the obvious objectives
I will try not to be obsessive

I left a note behind...left behind
To let me know that im alright...that Ill be alright
And to remind me of all the time....all the times
Ive been mislead by lies

I asked myself a question
About this life n this lesson....yeah
And the obvious objectives
I will try not to be obsessive...about you

I asked myself a question
About this life n this lesson....yeah
And the obvious objectives
I will try not to be obsessive....about you
About you....
