A child is born in the world tonite
Underneath the full moonlight
And on the highway a fire starts
Diesel engines and broken hearts

The girls wanna dance, the boys wanna fight
Gonna get rockin' in the world tonite
Black cat howls, the mad dog bites
Something gonna happen in the world tonite

Up in Heaven the stars align
Stirring up the world tonite
In the jungle the power's strong
And tribes are restless all night long, all night long

And the girls wanna dance, the boys wanna fight
Gonna get rockin' in the world tonite
Tension's rising, you can cut it with a knife
Sticky situation in the world tonite, the world tonite
Big moon staring at the world tonite

Young blood run free
You could be anything you wanna be
Young blood run wild
You've got the will of a king and the heart of a child

Yeah, so gimme a beat 'cause here I come
Tonite's the night I'm gonna bang my drum
Gotta million watts on the tip of my tongue
And I feel like a trigger on a loaded gun

Crank up the station
Shake the foundation
Wake up the nation
We got a situation

Where someone's got a button
Connected to a bomb
And it don't matter whose side you're on
They can have it all back by the morning light
All we want is the world tonite

Girls wanna dance, boys wanna fight
Gonna get rocking in the world tonite
Read all about it in black and white
Everybody gone crazy in the world tonite
In the world tonite

World tonite, world tonite
World tonite, world tonite
World tonite, world tonite
World tonite, world tonite

World tonite, world tonite
World tonite, world tonite
World tonite, world tonite
World tonite, world tonite
World tonite, world tonite
