Time stands still in my heart
I don't know where you are
Longing for what I denied
Can we just turn it around tonight

Without you I just go crazy
That all I think about
Is where you are
That only you can save me baby
From going through this life
All alone
And do you know

When will missing you stop
Seems we lost before the start
Holding back what was inside
Can we just let it all out tonight
Without you I just go crazy
That all I think about
Is where you are
That only you can save me baby
From going through this life all alone

And do you know
Do you know

Don't look back on yesterday
No, no, no
I believe we can find a way baby
Don't let hopes and dreams fade
Don't hesitate
It's not too late
I go crazy

And all I think about
Is where you are
That only you can save me baby
From going through this life
All alone
And do you know
Alright
I said do you know baby

And do you know

Do you know

Baby

Do you know

Sugar

I know baby

Oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yes

Baby

No, no

Do you know

Baby

Do you know

Sugar

I know

Do you know
