"The Remedy And The Cure"

Visit "The Remedy And The Cure" on MotoLyrics.com

We need a remedy, we need a brand new cure
To help us through this
We need a break so we can think again
And use our own brain
9 billion are raised and killed
Every year's the same deal
Slaughterhouse should be made of glass
So we could see what's going on

Sometimes, I wish that I could share their pain
Lend my voice to the ones that cannot scream

We need a remedy, we need a brand new cure
To help us through this
We need a break so we can think again
And use our own brain
Castrated, branded and dehorned
Without painkillers
Slaughterhouse should be made of glass
So we could see what's going on
