I aint no prophet
dont wanna cure no damn disease.
Would you marry me anyways,
if I was on my knees?

So I thought to myself,
I'm gonna marry into wealth.
Gonna take eveything shes got to offer,
and keep it for myself.

She said to me,
"I dont like what I see."
I said to her,
"I dont even know your name.."
& She said to me,
"I dont like what I see."
I said to her,
"I dont even fuckin' care."

I aint no prophet
dont wanna cure no damn disease.
Would you marry me anyways,
if I was on my knee?
I'm goin' through my time of change
In my time of need
What I want you got it
What I need is something that's not right
She said to me,
"I dont like what I see."
I said to her,
"I dont even know your name.."
& She said to me,
"I dont like what I see."
I said to her,
"I dont even fuckin' care....."
