Babe I was thinkin..

It's time we ran away,
sounds so good to me,
but I am still the boss.
No time for funny games,
that aint even walkin'
Baby I'm in love,
For you just had another brother under the club.

Why did I not see?
How did I know?
Open up the bedroom door,
Angelo walked through the door.

Pulled out a shotgun,
Now I know what's up
but I'll still be true to you,
I'll never ever doubt, (doubt doubt)
Baby there's no way out,
But there's a halo over me,
Don't stop and think about my wife and family.

If I ever realize, that I won the war,
I wanted to believe that God's in control.

Cause I know it's true, that I'm in love.
Baby if I did this, my timing would improve
