"Great Escape"

Lets begin, started with a plan to get out of here, said hey come in cause the weather dont wait for no one,
and sure not us.
it seems so precious,
or maybe were just tired and bored with our lives,
because it seems so sinful at the same time.
Five miles out of town she turns to me says, is it too late to turn around,
'cause i think i forgot my things, and I think we forgot our heads and we cant get too far with out that, oh no no no
it seems so precious,
or maybe were just tired and bored with our lives,
because it seems so sinful at the same time.
(3 x's)
as she turned around I seen that face as i watched her say good bye, good bye
