Raging and swirling,
getting inside,
I feel Like I'm going to Break!

Bright sun sinking low,
I never feel afraid to let emotions show.
Well I did.
Now take a look at me,
I had a close brush before your destiny.

Before I end, and you'll be victims of my stories, tales, lies, and exaggerations.
I'm gonna
When your living life like a show you gotta take a bow to the people you know

I said lie, for me lying under a process tree oh engrossing in my brain feeling like I'm going a little insane.

a little close inside feels like I'm going INSANE!

Red lights are sinking low

I grab another beer cuz it's time to go...

I feel my head burst, I head out to your car And I pray to Jesus Christ, but you won't get too far

I say uh, headlights and uh second gear I run the road of like and skip the things you fear I said that you might, that you might find a better way to justify the evil things that you say

Ah, help me please, ah help me please because I'm going upon my knees

I said, I said

going down to my knees
I pray to the Lord up above!

Help me,
I'm falling down feeling now the cold, cold, cold, hard ground haunting faces, and moving lines slumber party for tonight

Pound it hard, your gonna pound it again but please just do not pump up my friend cuz it seems all right, gonna push him around but I can't be taken for no clown.

Because,
when I am on the ground I CRY!

wowowowowo.. Dub Style!

oh, cool and easy
oh no cool and easy to the sweet reggae music oh no
feels all right to sweet reggae music feels all right sweet reggae music....
