why must we fight against each other?
why must we lie or invade?
do we truly hate our brothers?
or is that just the way we're taught to think?

people are dyin' the world over but it's a really just cause look at the soviets and reagan reagan reagan reagan riding blindly to inflict their own laws fighting blindly to inflict their own lies fighting blindly to inflict their own laws

well well well

keep on skankin' ronnie
skank the night away
but the time is coming
for us all to pay

hey hey hey!

people are dyin' the world over over over over over but it's a really just cause cause cause cause look at the soviets and reagan

fighting blindly to inflict their own laws said
fighting blindly to inflict their own laws

there there

but the time is coming

hey hey hey!

why must we fight against each other?
why must we riot or invade?
do we truly hate our brothers?

people are cryin' your world over
but it's a really just cause
fighting blindly to inflict their own lie lies

hey hey hey hey hey!

fighting blindly to inflict their own lies
