Early man walked away,
as modern man took control their minds weren't all the same to conquer was their goal so he we built his great empire and he slaughtered his own kind he died a country's man killed himself with his own mind

Early man walked away,
killed himself with his own mind

Let's GO!

We're only gonna die from our own irogance that's why we might as well take our time-e-e-e-e-e
