This time yesterday,
I thought I was gonna die,
Standing at the edge, of my ordinary life.
Now I am looking far ahead,
I only see clear blue skies,
Hope this feeling lasts me, until the end of time.

Now I don't see the things that bring me down like I used to.
No, and there were times where we felt like giving up but we came through.

All this time, we've come a long a long way
I waited a life time for today
Iâ'm praying this momentâ's here to stay
All this time, when everyone else said I was wrong
You gave me your reason to be strong
You gave me the will to carry on, All this time.

You kiss my blues away,
My yesterdays far behind,
And all these clouds of doubt, have cleared around my mind,
Now Iâ'm looking far ahead,
I'm looking with brand new eyes,
Well, I can't see the future, but I know itâ's looking bright

Never thought that we could survive what weâ've come through,
No, and there were times we felt like giving up but we had to. (?)

All this time, we've come a long a long way
I waited a life time for today
Iâ'm praying this momentâ's here to stay
All this time, when everyone else said I was wrong
You gave me your reason to be strong
You gave me the will to carry on, All this time.

Itâ's like a second chance at life,
So many people passing by,

and you know it's a shame 'cause they can't believe so they don't and they won't even try.
With every battle that's been won,
With every little thing I've done
What I couldn't see, It's now clear to me.

All this time, We've come a long a long way
I waited a life time for today
I am praying this moment is here to stay
All this time, We've come a long a long way
I waited a life time for today
I am praying this moment is here to stay
All this time, when everyone else said I was wrong
You gave me a reason to be strong
You gave me the will to carry on
All this time
