Too many roads dead-end streets
I lost my way endlessly looking for something to restore my faith and give me the strength to fight again

Too many words beat me hard cos they never meant what they said they would I have been taken, broken, abandoned alone I guess i was resigned to give in

The very first time back then i knew
I'll be needing you
I was lost and you gave me direction again.. yeah

[Chorus]

Just when my hope had gone Just when i needed someone to give me love you came and rescued me yeah

you showed me right there

Just what i've been waiting for lifted me up guided me out from the dark

Just when i needed it most

You showed me the meaning of love

As tears go by i could see there' nothing i miss by the crying game my heart beats like it's the real thing

I know i can feel it but.. I've got the strength to fight again

The very first time back then i knew

I'll be needing you

I was lost and you gave me direction again.. yeah

[Repeat Chorus]

Can't you see on my face

Standing here

look at the smile you're bringing there's no doubt in my mind now you found it I'll hope again

[Repeat Chorus]

Just when i needed it most

You showed me the meaning of love

Just when i needed it most

You showed me the meaning of love
