Lyrics by: Rory Winston

Ice... I see my frozen stare
Eyes, so cold and empty
Sealed inside my head
Scenes of loss reflected

"Take my hand", you say while falling
As your parachute opens
And I break my neck in a tree
"Make a plan" - Your love's so solid
It keeps floating and floating
Like shit in an endless sea

Need - knee-deep in emptiness
Kneeling in love unborn
Frames without images
Seems I've lived this all before

"Be a man", you keep calling
But the ball that you're throwing
Used to be part of me
Make a plan your love's so solid
Floating and floating
Like shit in an endless sea

"Take a stand", you say while crawling
Watching highlights as they shoot me on TV
Make a plan your love's so solid
Floating and floating
Like shit in an endless sea
