I watch the world

Discourage me Everything that I see

Falling away in place Rising lines of hate

Towards a repeating past Empires that never last

How can we change this? How can we save this?

I always believed I'd make a change

One day

With the things I do and the lives that I'd change

A human-interest story played out on a broader scale

No one seemed to take notice, leaving their souls for sale

Scripture, money, ignorance; these are no reasons to kill

How can we change this? How can we save this?

I always believed I'd make a change

ONE DAY!

With the things I do and the lives that I'd change

Showing the world that there's a better way to communicate

RESPECT!

Love each other and integrate

How can we change this? How can we save this?

How can we change this? HOW CAN WE SAVE THIS!

How will we teach freedom to the young

When they're staring down the barrel of democracy's gun?

A disposable Africa for us all

Selling guns and testing pharmaceuticals

Barrels for lives in the East

No one gets rich in peace
