You know that christmas is approaching
When there is firework and bombings
They echo out over the suburbs
Into the million dollar houses
You know that packages are folding
And your relatives keep on phoning
What's your wishes for the new year
I think I'll wish upon a tear
And oh some need some chauvinistic packages
To keep the life just
You know that radio keep on playing
And life is getting kinda gay and
There are a million people filing
For divorce between the meals
And you know those little kids eyes
There is a robotic must have I'll line
If you don't get that PS2
Schoolyard it's gonna be goodbye for you, goodbye
But even the bullies celebrate christmas they do
I have a feeling they do
