And it's bigger than everything I have ever done before

And it's bigger than everything I have ever done before

I've found a reason for staying home tonight

Just by myself tonight - all by myself

I'm gonna loop duplicate my heart into a million songs

I've found a reason for going out tonight

I'm making out tonight - with my computer

I'm bringing guitars on hold on my multitrack - goes around

And is it really so?

So many interesting effects

I wanna try,

I wanna try them more on you

And it's bigger than everything I have ever done before

Can't get no sleep tonight - feels so good tonight

Damn it feels so sweet tonight! - all by myself

The neighbours can't complain 'cause I got my head phones on

Can't get no sleep tonight - damn it feels so good tonight!

Everything is alright now (my computer)

I'm gonna sing a million songs for you

So I hope you enjoy it

And is it really so? So many interesting effects

I wanna try,

I wanna try them more on you

And it's bigger than everything I have ever done before

And it's bigger than everything I have ever done before

And it's bigger than everything I have ever done before
