Ask me all about rejection
Ask me all about disgrace
Ask me all about repression
I won't blink though it's in my face

Ask me when I learned to hide
And just how I got to keep it all inside
Ask me why I built a wall
'Cause I've got no choice
I have to swallow it all

For you
I'm losing my faith
I'm choosing my fate
It's so late now
I can't bear the weight

I'm losing my faith
I'm choosing my fate
It's so late now
I can't bear the weight

I'm losing my faith
I can't bear the weight

Tell me all about forgiveness
Tell me all about remorse
Tell me all about redemption
I will learn to kneel in due course

Tell me how you'll set me free
With the sacrifices that you made for me
Tell me you'll bring down the walls
'Cause I've got no choice
I have to swallow it all

For you
I'm losing my faith
I'm choosing my fate
It's so late now
I can't bear the weight

I'm losing my faith
I'm choosing my fate
It's so late now
I can't bear the weight

Tell me how you'll set me free
With the sacrifices that you made for me
Tell me how you'll set me free
'Cause it's so late
I can't bear the weight

[Solo]

'Cause it's so late...

I'm losing my faith
I'm choosing my fate
It's so late now

I'm losing my faith
I'm choosing my fate
It's so late now

Tell me how you'll set me free
With the sacrifices that you made for me
Tell me how you'll set me free
'Cause it's so late

Tell me how you'll set me free
With the sacrifices that you made for me
Tell me how you'll set me free
'Cause it's so late
