The flaming fire in your eye
Reveals the secret that we're two of a kind
I've got my own demons to defy
And you've got all those scars to hide
'Cause we're the ones that won't abide

I'm leaving now
I'm untameable
Don't you try to take me down
I'm untameable

Don't let your fears get in our way
I'm untameable
I never lose control
I'd never break your soul

Don't let your fears lead you astray
I'm untameable
I never lose control
Never try to break my soul

You'll never tame the untameable

In so much pain I feel alive
There is no pill or cure for my vicious drive
I've got to follow the scent
It's time to go
I reap the harvest that I've sown
I was born to walk alone

I'm leaving now
I'm untameable
Don't you try to take me down
I'm untameable

Don't let your fears get in our way
I'm untameable
I never lose control
I'd never break your soul

Don't let your fears lead you astray

I'm untameable
I never lose control
Never try to break my soul

You'll never tame the untameable

Untameable!

You'll never tame the untameable!!
You'll never tame the untameable!!
You'll never tame the untameable!!
You'll never tame the untameable!!!

Don't let your fears get in our way
I'm untameable
I never lose control
I'd never break your soul

Don't let your fears lead you astray
I'm untameable
I never lose control

You'll never tame the untameable
