you used to make me crazy i used to drive you wild we havent seen the sun come up together in a while theres still a little fire but it aint worth fighting for ive got a feelin this aint love anymore cant say i dont miss you but i dont leave long and lie i no longer worry when you dont come home at night truth is i dont lie awake and i wont walk the floor ive got a feeling this aint love anymore there aint no song there aint no why?? what yours is yours and whats mine is mine there aint no easy way to say goodbye just goodbye

I know it wont be easy I'll get along somehow Im leaving all my tears behind So you can cry them now I wont look back on what we had Once I walk out this door I got a feelin this aint love anymore
