Im getting tired of this guessing game
Im tired of playing by rules that are subject to change
You've been out on that fence so long
>From where I stand I cant tell what side you're on You cant keep changing your mind
Feels like Im wasting my time
Dont be afraid to let go
If you love me, let me know

You either do or you dont
You either will or you wont
Theres no in between
Its yes or its no
You're out or you're in
There's no middle road
You either do or you dont

You should know it dont work like this
We'll never get what we want without taking a risk
If Im the only one willing to What are the chances of love ever seeing us through You say you want me then you say you want space but you cant have it both ways
You either do or you dont
You either will or you wont
Theres no in between
Its yes or its no
You're out or you're in
There's no middle road
You either do or you dont

While Im still waiting
Just come out and say it
Dont complicate it
You know how you feel

You either do or you dont
You either will or you wont
Theres no in between
Its yes or its no
You're out or you're in

There's no middle road
You either do or you dont
You either do or you dont
