Make ends meet and we'll see the bottom of your feet
again
Isn't it nice to be able to tune right out?
Just close the screen
The tiny things that separate us
The locks on our doors
The dissonance instilled in refrains you've never heard correct before
Inspiration comes in many forms
Including fraud
Including yours
Make ends meet and we'll see the bottom of your feet
again
And no, it's nothing personal, but it never is Not how I thought I'd learn to live

The tiny things that separate us
The locks on doors
The dissonance instilled in refrains you've never heard
correct before
Inspiration comes in many forms
Including fraud
Including yours
And all the smarter kids
Went off to be emotional extortionists
And what am I left with?
Where am I now?
The tiny things that separate us
The locks on our doors
The tiny things that separate us
I'm tuning out
