I wish that I could say the pain wasn't enough to keep me awake
Some nights it was just too much for me to take This road is a dead end when all I want to do is just pretend
That I'm sitting next to my friend

Back then, I couldn't tell you when contemplated one man's end
So far, I found that searching is hard but it's not impossible
Back then, it was too much for me to handle but I learned
That if your pain keeps you in chains just don't Dismantle what's left of you

You've got enough to get you through
You know when you died
A part of me died too
You've got enough to get you through

And it's so hard to say We'll never share the stage again just you and me
(You and me)
And I know that it will all be Ok
When I'm not living just to wait for things to be like yesterday

Back then, it was too much for me to handle but I
Dismantle what's left of you

You've got enough to get you through
You know when you died
A part of me died too
You've got enough to get you through

Day two, words spoke with you Left me thinking "What the fuck should I do?"
