"Let Go"

You say you wanna let go
The way that some you knew let go
You say you wanna dive in
With none of the inhibitions i have been

Well there's no need to hold on
You've proven that you don't need to belong
You say that you wanna let go
The way that some you knew let go

Everything is all you need
Everything is all you need

You say you wanna let go
Well people, people, people hold on
You say you wanna dive in
Well, sister, sister, do what you can

'cause if you're gonna hold on
People, people, before too long
You'll say you wanna let go
And people really should, you should know

Everything is all you need
(all you need is everything)
Everything is all you need
(all you need is everything)
Everything is all you need
(all you need is everything)
Everything is all you need

Say you wanna let go
