Oh you might have conversation smashed in a bar
Clocking all of the disco dolls that blind you
Oh check out some mad situation some silly farce
So real you can feel it twist inside you

Everywhere you go
Every thing you do
Every place you know
Every word you choose

I'm in everybody's eyes
Everybody's lives
I'm in everything you see
You belong to me

Oh you might walk down by the station
Through garbage and rust
Breathing all the diseases just like i do
Driving through some conurbation you'll step on the gas
And i'll be sat right there beside you

Cos everywhere you go
Every thing you do
Every place you know
Every word you choose

I'm in everybody's eyes
Everybody's lives
I'm in everything you see
You belong to me

Well you can smash the windows
And break some faces
Or spray graffiti on public places
Or hang around some dead town but i'll be there

Everywhere you go
Every thing you do
Every place you know
Every word you choose

I'm in everybody's eyes
Everybody's lives
I'm in everything you see
You belong to me
