Why is it that this burns so much
Was I too blind to see your lies
When did you decide to cut me in half
This is as dead, as dead as I get Reach inside myself, to find myself
I gave you all I had
You spit in my face
Everything you've done
Will come back to you
For that you'll pay
Pay with your life

You will pay

I've turned against a world that fucking turned against me
Once again I feel for your smile
Then I take a step back to realize

You fucking lied

I'd rather kill you
Then come back to you

Heed my words
Hide your face
Judgment day is near

Heed my words
Hide your face
Judgment day is here
