When the night comes,
Everything gold turns gray
Silence seems to be as loud,
As a scream in a hall
Let me touch your face, let me smell your hair
I know, I know, I'm not worth your time
Can we talk a while, I had hoped for more
But I know I am worthless, not worth your time
Not worth your fucking time, no
Back the fuck up off me
I won't stand for your abuse, no
Each moment I'm with you
I feel betrayed
Turn the fuck around
Go back from where you came
You will never change me

When the night comes,
Everything gold turns gray
Silence seems to be as loud,
As a scream in a hall
I don't fear the past, but I fear the future
I fear the opposite of me

I don't fear the past, I fear the opposite of me
So take this how you want to
It won't change the way I feel, no
As world comes crashing down on you
