Going outside
Shovelling snow in the driveway, driveway
Taking our shoes
Riding our sled down the hillside, hillside

Can you say what you want?
Can you say what you want to be?
Can you be what you want?
Can you be what you want?

Our father yells
Throwing our gifts in the woodstove, woodstove
My sister runs away
Taking her books to the schoolyard, schoolyard

In time the snow will rise, in time the snow will rise
In time the Lord will rise, in time the Lord will rise

Silent night, Holy night
Silent night, nothing feels right
