(English Version)

If you disappeared
Or even if you turned into a cat or a caterpillar
At first I'd cry a lot
But maybe eventually it'd make a good story

So today, let's talk a little longer
On the phone than usual
I feel a bit guilty
So I'll be nicer to you...

If you and I became friends
And you gave me advice like you knew what you were talking about
I'd nonchalantly
Use it and then throw it in the trash

So today, let's take a walk
At night the streets are empty
The moonlight makes most things
Look prettier...

So today, let's talk a little longer
On the phone than usual
I feel a bit guilty
So I'll be nicer to you...

So today, let's take a walk
At night the streets are empty
The moonlight makes most things
Look prettier...
