I tried to fly but my wings were broken
Trying to reach You
I caught the train without a token
Trying to reach You

All that I long for is all that You give
All that I run to is there where You live
All I can handle is falling apart
When I feel so far
When I feel so far

I tried to fight but I'm my opponent
Dying to tell You
I stole the words that were unspoken
I'm dying to tell You

All that I long for is all that You give
All that I run to is there where You live
All I can handle is falling apart
When I feel so far

I feel so far away
Far away from You
All the while, You were closing in
All that I'm missing, You're giving
I'm dying to reach You
