I love an untame lion
He's calling me to come
My cold heart, how it hesitates
I want to turn and run
His power is dangerous
His power is endless love

(chorus)
He's calling me
To a place where love's the only song
He's calling me
To a place where night will dance
With endless dawn
Dancing on and on and on

I try to hide in sleeping
His music fills my dreams
I'm filled with longing for a place
A place I've never seen
He's calling, I want Him so
He's calling, I can't let go
(chorus)

(bridge)
Shadows falling, His voice keeps calling
Golden as the sun
It is morning without warning
I fall into His love
(chorus)
