Uh, Sugar Ray, Shaggy
And [Incomprehensible] new style
So you wicked and wild
They [Incomprehensible] reversitile, uh

There's a place without commotion
Down by the sea, inside this ocean
Deep inside a dream, a universe in notion
Tryin' to be free, sent into motion

Someone fall in love with me
And someone fall in love

Praise, praise for redemption
In a perfect stage sung with emotion
To get the feeling right set your position
Fly through the night for anyone to listen

Someone fall in love with me
And someone fall in love
Someone fall in love

Someone fall
Someone fall in love
Someone, someone, watch out, uh

Girl, the lovin' that I'm givin' to you is so addictive
The way you fell in love could not be predicted
Don'tcha worry about becoming a victim
Wuhdababa, wuhdababa, uh

Girl, the lovin' that I'm givin' to you is so addictive
The way you fell in love could not be predicted
Don'tcha worry about becoming a victim
Uh, most [Incomprehensible] emotion sexiness, uh

Feelings unpredictable and that is okay
Took me by surprise and now you've no need to stray
Love is like a game, you know it takes two to play
I will be the light you need to show you the way

Here comes combination, Shaggy and Sugar Ray

Matters of the heart, you have a whole lot to say
Need someone to hold on to night and day
Consider this the lesson every time that you play

Someone fall in love with me
And someone fall in love
Someone fall in love

Someone fall in love
Someone fall in love with me
Someone fall in love
Whatever you're tellin' yourself

Girl, the lovin' that I'm givin' to you is so addictive
The way you fell in love could not be predicted
Don'tcha worry about becoming a victim
Wuhdababa, wuhdababa

Girl, the lovin' that I'm givin' to you is so addictive
The way you fell in love could not be predicted
Don'tcha worry about becoming a victim
Again, again, I said

Feelings unpredictable and that is okay
Took me by surprise and now you've no need to stray
Love is like a game, you know it takes two to play
I will be the light you need to show you the way

Here comes combination Shaggy and Sugar Ray
Matters of the heart you have a hole lot to say
You need someone to hold on to night and day
Consider this the lesson every time that you play
