I woke up late again this morning
It's just another morning lyin there for me
In your mind your always runnin
Keep on runnin, run away from me

I spend all my time chasin' you around
It's that way now I found out for sure
I spend all my time chasin' you around
It's that way now I found out for sure

Said you'd stay & make it better
We'd stay together
Is what you said to me
But you left without a warning
Now another morning is lyin there for me

I spend all my time chasin' you around
It's that way now I found out for sure
I spend all my time chasin' you around
It's that way now I found out for sure

And everytime that I try to get to you
There's nothing I can say
We tried but it seems there's nothing left to do
But I'll wait anyway

I spend all my time chasin' you around
It's that way now I found out for sure
I spend all my time chasin' you around
It's that way now I found out for sure

I know I know I know
Whatever it takes now
I'll make no mistakes now
Whatever it takes now
I know I know I know
Whatever it takes now
I'll make no mistakes now
Whatever it takes now

I spend all my time chasin' you around
It's that way now I found out for sure

I spend all my time chasin' you around
It's that way now I found out for sure
I spend all my time chasin' you around
I know I know I know
I spend all my time chasin' you around
I know I know I know
