Love, can you feel what I feel?
I feel love and it's all I feel
I feel love and it feels so real
It makes time go by

But you think that it's over
And you feel that way
But it's just something for now
It's nothing at all

Maybe I'm right, maybe I'm wrong
Making it up as we go along
Don't run away, we're just getting closer

So long
We've been building a bridge for so long
It's been fifteen years, it's so long
But you're still right here by my side

So to think that it's over
How to feel that way
We can work this out somehow
It's nothing at all

Maybe I'm right, maybe I'm wrong
Making it up as we go along
Don't run away, we're just getting closer, yeah

They say love like this can never last
They say all those things that make us laugh
It's nothing at all, we're just getting closer

There's nothing wrong
There's nothing wrong
It's been far too long
It's been far too long to let this slip away

Maybe I'm right, maybe I'm wrong
Making it up as we go along
Don't run away, we're just getting closer, yeah

They say love like this can never last

They say all those things that make us laugh
It's nothing at all, we're just getting closer

Getting closer, getting closer, getting closer
Getting closer, getting closer, getting closer
Getting closer, getting closer, getting closer
