well i just got back an hour ago i don't know where i've been now i'm crawlin' across the kitchen floor i don't know what i've said chorus:

well i feel so complicated and our love is kinda jaded i'm coming through the doggie door again well there ain't no sense in coming home she knows where i've been and it's another night out in the cold one more time again

it's a hard time understandin' you know you're so demanding and i'm coming through the doggie door again whooo!

i got nothing for you
i got nothing for you
i got nothing for you
i got nothing for you, baby!

i got nothing for you
i got nothing for you
i got notihng for you, baby!

my life is complicated our love is kinda jaded and i'm coming throught the doggie door i'm running through the doggie door i'm falling through the doggie door again!!
