You really hit the sky, stars get into your eyes starve and burn away the pain, age will make him go away
I drank your blood, it looked like wine
I drank your blood, it looked like mine
I'll kill myself in your bed
you won't remember what she said
I'll kill myself in your bed
you won't forget follow the doctor, he gives you what he got her climb into his bed of dolls, pretend you have a soul
I drank your blood, it looked like wine
I drank your blood, it looked like mine
I'll kill myself in your bed
you won't remember what she said
I'll kill myself in your bed
you won't forget
you look like a girl again, you can love yourself again you look like a girl again, you can drown yourself again
I drank your blood, it looked like wine
I drank your blood, it looked like mine I'll kill myself in your bed you won't remember what she said
I'll kill myself in your bed you won't forget
