(Rita)

They say that there is a rainbow
And there's a pot of gold in the end
One day I hope I could follow a rainbow
Right to its end

(Renzo)

They say that nothing is easy
They say that every dream has a price
But if I keep on believing my wish
I'll see with my eyes

(Julie Ann)

Like the sunshine in the morning
Like the starlight in the night
I can feel my dream is coming
And my hope is flying high

(Pocholo)

And a symphony awaits me
With a song that's meant for me
And I soar among the eagles
With the wind to set me free

(Vanessa)

They say that nothing is easy
They say that every dream has a price
But if I keep on believing my wish
I'll see with my eyes

(Rita & Renzo)

Like the sunshine in the morning
Like the starlight in the night

(Julie Ann & Vanessa)

I can feel my dream is coming
And my hope is flying high

(Pocholo)

And a symphony awaits me
With a song that's meant for me

(All)
And I soar among the eagles
With the wind to set me free

(Renzo & Pocholo)
When I finally reach that moment

(Rita, Julie Ann, & Vanessa)
Then I'll celebrate with you

(All)
Like the sunshine in the morning
Like the starlight in the night
I can feel my dream is coming
And my hope is flying high
And a symphony awaits me
With a song that's meant for me
And I soar among the eagles
With the wind to set me free

I feel it, it's coming
I feel my dream is coming
